Vote Centers to Remain Open for Voting During L.A. County's Extended Curfew June 2 Special Elections in the City of Commerce and Pico Rivera

LOS ANGELES – Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) Dean C. Logan announced the two (2) Vote Centers participating in today's Special Elections in the City of Commerce and in El Rancho Unified School District (Pico Rivera) will remain open for voting during the County's extended curfew.

The County's imposed curfew has some exemptions, one of which includes voting in-person at a participating Vote Center. Both Vote Centers will remain open and available for voting until 8 PM.

Due to COVID-19, all eligible voters in the jurisdictions were mailed a Vote by Mail ballot and the Registrar encourages voters to participate in this election by filling out and returning their mail-in ballot. Voted ballots may be returned at secure ballot drop off locations or by mail, postmarked on or before Election Day.
