LA County Registrar Dean C. Logan Announced as a Finalist for International Electoral Awards

LOS ANGELES – Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) Dean C. Logan has been selected as one of three finalists for the 2017 International Electoral Awards to be held in Jordan from December 4-6.

The award category is for Electoral Ergonomy, which recognizes election officials, who have tailored electoral procedures to the psychology of the voters and the specific characteristics of their electorate.

The Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder County Clerk's office has been involved in addressing an aging voting system and an increasingly large and complex electorate through Voting Solutions for All People. The project, which is currently in the implementation phase has included field research and coalition building that has helped the RR/CC pioneer a voter-centered approach to a new voting system design and development.

"I am honored to be considered for this award," said Logan. "We continue to put voters at the forefront of everything we do and will continue to work hard to provide Los Angeles County voters a voting experience that conveys the significance of the act of voting."

The International Electoral Awards are established exclusively for electoral stakeholders by the International Centre for Parliamentary Studies. The awards are to acknowledge election officials and their significant contribution to the democratic process beyond the community of electoral professionals, practitioners and experts.

The winners will be announced during the International Electoral Awards ceremony on Tuesday, December 5.

The mission of the Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk is to serve Los Angeles County by providing essential records management and election services in a fair, accessible and transparent manner. For more information, visit lavote.net.
